

Riverside Nursery

Is making it easier for you this season with our helpful plant lists. Here you will find a variety of deer resistant plants for your garden. Although no plant is guaranteed, the following selections are considered to be deer resistant. If your garden is prone to deer damage, please feel free to speak with any of our sales associates and they will be happy to assist you in finding some great selections for your garden. We also offer a wide selection of deer repellants and netting for extra security. Get ready to enjoy your garden this season with a little help from Riverside Nursery!
